2017 Anna Stewart Temporary Officer Two Week Program & Application Form

Anna Stewart was an active Victorian union official and long-time campaigner for women's rights. Anna worked for a number of unions from 1974, until she died tragically in 1983 at the age of 35. She campaigned during the 1970s to ensure that both the union movement and employers began to recognise the needs of working women.

After her death, the Anna Stewart Program was established as an affirmative action aimed at developing the skills, knowledge and confidence of women members and empowering them to be actively involved in Federation in their workplace, local association, or state level.

Your application will be considered by the Women's and Anna Stewart Program Committee, which consists of six female Federation members who are elected every two years at February Council. The Department of Education supports the Anna Stewart Program.

To ensure that all women members have an opportunity to participate in the program, the Federation will cover transport and accommodation costs for eligible successful applicants. If you require childcare or other support to be able to participate in the program, please contact Women's Coordinator, Anna Uren, on 9217 2100 or 1300 654 369 to discuss.
