Enterprise Bargaining Update for a new Teachers & Related Employees Enterprise Agreement 2020

What has been happening?

TAFE NSW and the Australian Education Union NSW Teachers Federation commenced enterprise bargaining for a new TAFE NSW Commission of NSW Teachers and Related Employees Enterprise Agreement 2020. Both parties have an interest in, and shared commitment to, robust and speedy enterprise bargaining.

Meetings were held towards the end of last year and have continued during January and February 2020. So far there have been eight meetings held between TAFE NSW and the NSW Teachers Federation, with more meetings to occur this week with the aim of agreeing on a new enterprise agreement as soon as possible.

Next Steps

As mentioned above, both parties have been engaged in collaborative negotiations and remain committed to reaching an agreement soon. The next enterprise bargaining meeting with the NSW Teachers Federation is scheduled for today. Following that, we will continue to meet regularly with the aim of reaching an agreement soon and shall keep you updated.
