11.2.1 An Employee may, by agreement with the Employer, enter into a salary packaging arrangement, including salary sacrifice to superannuation, where they may convert up to 100% of their salary to:

(a) a motor vehicle (whether on a business/private split in accordance with subclause 11.3 or a novated lease under the Employer’s salary packaging scheme) and;

(b) the full range of benefits under the Employer’s salary packaging scheme, provided that no TAFE Manager may package more than one motor vehicle at any given time whether on a business/private split in accordance with subclause 11.3 or a novated lease under the Employer’s salary packaging scheme.

11.2.2 Any pre-tax and post-tax payroll deductions must be taken into account prior to determining the amount of salary available to be packaged. Such payroll deductions may include but are not limited to, compulsory superannuation payments, HECS payments, child support payments, judgment debtor/garnishee orders, union fees, health fund premiums.

11.2.3 The terms and conditions of the salary packaging arrangement, including the duration as agreed between the Employee and Employer, will be provided in a separate written agreement, in accordance with the Employer’s salary packaging guidelines. Such agreement must be made prior to the period of service to which the earnings relate.

11.2.4 Salary packaging must be cost neutral for the Employer. Employees must reimburse the Employer in full for the amount of:

(a) any fringe benefits tax liability arising from a salary packaging arrangement; and

(b) any administrative fees.

11.2.5 Where the Employee makes an election to salary package the following payments made by the Employer in relation to an Employee shall be calculated by reference to the annual salary which the Employee would have been entitled to receive but for the salary packaging arrangement:

12. Superannuation

14.3 A part time Employee working 4 hours or less on any one day is entitled to only one paid lactation break of up to 30 minutes on any day so worked.

14.4 A flexible approach to lactation breaks can be taken by mutual agreement between an Employee and their manager provided the total lactation break time entitlement is not exceeded. When giving consideration to any such requests for flexibility, a manager needs to balance the operational requirements of the organisation with the lactating needs of the Employee.

14.5 The Employer shall provide access to a suitable, private space with comfortable seating for the purpose of breastfeeding or expressing milk.

14.6 Other suitable facilities, such as refrigeration and a sink, shall be provided where practicable. Breastfeeding Association’s Breastfeeding Helpline Service or the Public Health System.

14.8 Employees needing to leave the workplace during time normally required for duty to seek support or treatment in relation to breastfeeding and the transition to the workplace may utilise Personal Leave in accordance with subclause 20.3, Personal Leave of this Agreement, or access to clause 12, Hours of Work of this Agreement, where applicable.

15.3 The Employer is committed to providing access to and support for capability and leadership / management development.

15.4 Where the Employee requires professional development, the Employer will meet the compulsory fees involved. Where the capability development opportunity is voluntary the Employer may, at its discretion, refund all or part of the compulsory fees incurred by the TAFE Managers approved to undertake approved training and professional development programs.

15.5 Consistent with the above commitments, while there is no minimum time per annum to be allocated to capability development, General Managers should ensure that all TAFE Managers undertake training and capability development related to their current and medium term development needs as identified in their performance agreement. This does not preclude access to other development opportunities provided by the Employer.

16. Appointment

16.1 The filling of vacant positions of TAFE Manager will be by way of a competitive selection process based on merit, subject to the provisions of the TAFE NSW Recruitment and Staff Selection policy.

16.2 A person who is not already a permanent Employee of TAFE NSW who is appointed to a TAFE Manager’s position shall be appointed for a minimum probationary period of six months.

20.5.4 Family and Community Service Leave is provided in addition to the entitlements under Personal/Carer’s Leave and the TAFE NSW Special Leave policy, which provides for paid leave for Jury service and for emergency service volunteers subject to the conditions outlined in the policy.
