

HOW DOES IT FEEL?

Imagine this.

You've lived all your life at peace. Home, family, friends, all normal. Then, without warning, your whole world changes.

Overnight, lifelong neighbours become lifelong enemies. Tanks prowl the streets and buses burn. Mortar shells shatter the mosques. Rockets silence the church bells.

Suddenly everything you've known and owned and loved is gone and, if you're lucky enough to survive, you find yourself alone and bewildered in a foreign land. You are a refugee.

How does it feel?

The fact is, refugees are just like you and me, except that they have nothing. And that's exactly what they'll always have unless we help.

We're not asking for money (though every contribution helps), but only this: When you do meet a refugee, imagine for a moment what it must be like, and then show her your smile. Instead of your back.

It may not seem much. But to a refugee it can mean everything.

UNHCR is a strictly humanitarian organization funded only by voluntary contributions. Currently it is responsible for more than 27 million refugees around the world.
