WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

Nasty names. Shocking even, in print. But too common if you're unlucky enough to be a refugee.

Wait. Why are "you" and "me" among them? And why is every figure identical? They're all the same!

Exactly!

You see, refugees are like you and me. So what's the difference? Really only one: fear.

While our homes are safe and our rights protected, their homes have been destroyed, and any rights they once enjoyed have been swept away by violence and hatred—and they've been living in constant fear for their very lives.

That's why they are refugees. Of course they wish they were back home — wouldn't you? But it's still too dangerous, and for now we must continue to offer them our protection.

So please, don't get mad at refugees.

Instead, save your breath for the situation that's made them refugees.
