

WHAT'S WRONG HERE?

Look at this nice happy people.

Notice that each one has something: a tool or implement here, a bicycle or a briefcase there. All completely normal and unremarkable.

But wait. Something's amiss. That nice fellow near the bottom – third row down, second from the right. He doesn't seem to have anything.

Indeed. You see, he's a refugee.

And as you can see, refugees are just like you and me except for one thing: everything they once had has been destroyed or taken away, probably at gunpoint. Home, family, possessions, all gone.

They have nothing.

And nothing is all they'll ever have unless we help.

Of course, you can't give them back what's been destroyed, and we're not asking for money (though every penny helps). But we are asking you to keep an open mind. And a smile of welcome.

It may not seem much. But to a refugee it can mean everything.

UNHCR is a strictly humanitarian organization funded only by voluntary contributions. Currently it is responsible for more than 23 million refugees around the world.
