CONSTITUTIONAL RECOGNITION OF ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER AUSTRALIANS

HOW CAN I GET INVOLVED?

Australians are being encouraged to give their views in many ways: by attending a consultation meeting, writing a letter, email or submission or by visiting the website to post a comment:

www.youmeunity.org.au

Consultations:

Anyone can attend the community consultation sessions which are being held around Australia between May 2011 and September 2011.

Write a letter or email:

You can write to the Panel on Constitutional Recognition of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Australians at the following address: contact@youmeunity.org.au OR PO Box 7576, Canberra Business Centre, ACT, 2610.

Lodge a submission:

You can provide a written submission to the Panel by emailing submissions@youmeunity.org.au before Friday 30 September 2011. More information about submissions is available on this website.

DIY events:

A package of materials is available that you can download from the website if you would like to hold a conversation or have an event in your local community or organisation.

The website:

Talk about this issue with your family, friends, work or university/school colleagues and tell them about the website: www.youmeunity.org.au Send them there to find out more information about this issue. The more everyone talks about the issue, the more people can encourage others in their communities to learn and understand.

You can also follow the issues on Twitter, Facebook or Youtube so let everyone know:
