

NSW Nurses and Midwives' Association Scholarship

The NSW Nurses and Midwives' Association scholarships seek to support motivated Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander or refugee students with demonstrated merit, who are facing hardship, to realise their career goals in studying nursing or midwifery through a public university or TAFE in NSW. The scholarships provide financial assistance to Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander and refugee students in Year 12 in a public high school in NSW who intend to complete an NMBA-approved nursing or midwifery course after finishing their Higher School Certificate in 2025.

The scholarships assist with the transition into and progress through nursing or midwifery studies for up to three years. The NSW Nurses and Midwives' Association is the registered union for all nurses and midwives in New South Wales. The Association represents the industrial and professional interests of nurses and midwives employed in NSW in the public, private, aged care and disability sectors. Their role is to protect the interests of nurses, midwives and the nursing and midwifery professions.

What's on offer

Up to five scholarships are available to eligible applicants. Each scholarship offered consists of an annual payment of up to $3,000 provided at the commencement of each academic year, up to a maximum of 3 years. For students relocating from a rural or remote area, an additional one-off payment of up to $3,000 may be provided to assist with initial relocation expenses.

The scholarship is intended to cover educational expenses such as:

- Course fees
- Necessary equipment
- Stationery and books
- Laptop
- Face-to-face (or online) tutoring
- Other education essentials

Scholarship funds will only be made available to the recipients on confirmation of their enrolment in full-time study in an appropriate nursing or midwifery degree or diploma.

At the end of each academic year, the student will be required to submit to the Public Education Foundation evidence of their successful progression through their study in the form of an academic transcript. If a student is not progressing satisfactorily through their study, the Public Education Foundation reserves the right to terminate the scholarship.

If a student discontinues studying nursing or midwifery, they will no longer be eligible for the scholarship, and any unspent monies must be refunded to the Public Education Foundation. Before applying for this scholarship, please ensure that you read the Scholarship Terms and Conditions available on our website.

How the selection works

A selection panel will review all scholarship applications and assess them against the selection criteria. The selection panel will include representatives of the Public Education Foundation, a representative from the funding partner and independent experts. After considering all applications, the selection panel will recommend the selected applicant(s) for the approval of the Public Education Foundation's Board.

Applicants will be notified of the outcome in December 2025. If successful, the scholarship recipient's school principal will also receive notification directly.

How to apply

Applications are online through PEF-Apply. You'll need to:

- Create a PEF-Apply account
- Complete the application form with your details (personal, family, school, and course preferences)

A full list of application requirements and supporting documents can be found in PEF-Apply. However, you will need to submit:

- Your most recent school report
- A personal reference (teacher, coach, employer, etc.)
- A short, written statement (max 400 words) on why you're applying and how you meet the criteria
- A short outline of how your current studies or work experience support your university goals
- Request a supporting statement from your Principal (done via PEF-Apply – the system will email them)

Tip for Principals: Your statement is vital as panels rely heavily on your detailed feedback.
