Summary

The AEC has recently completed an scheduled election for the Australian Education Union, New South Wales Teachers Federation Branch.

Report requirements

After the completion of an election under the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the Act) the AEC is required to prepare a post-election report. The report must cover the matters set out in section 141 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Regulations 2009 (the Regulations). This includes:

- (a) a declaration of the results
- (b) any rules of the organisation or branch which because of ambiguity or other reason, were difficult to interpret or apply
- (c) any matters in relation to the roll of voters
- (d) the number of written allegations (if any) of irregularities made to the AEC during the election
- (e) action taken by the AEC in relation to those allegations
- (f) any other irregularities identified by the AEC and action taken by the AEC in relation to those other irregularities.

The AEC is required to identify adverse rules in the report. An adverse rule is one that the returning officer found difficult to interpret or apply to the election. The organisation must respond in writing to the AEC to any adverse rules within 30 days of the date of this post-election report.

Report findings

The AEC has identified 1 rule that was difficult to interpret or apply.

The AEC has identified 1 rule that could be improved by reference to the model rules. Model rules for elections were published on 30 June 2025 by the Fair Work Commission. The AEC recommends all organisations consider whether their rules could be improved or updated by reference to those rules.

(replaces rulebook dated 11 June 2025 [R2025/84])*

Rules that were difficult to interpret or apply:

One (1) difficult rules were identified and the AEC requests the rules be updated using the model rules published by the Fair Work Commission (available at <https://www.fwc.gov.au/registered-organisations/running-registered-organisation/rules-unions-and-employer-associations>)

Under section 198 of the Act, the organisation must respond to the AEC on these matters in writing within 30 days. The organisation must otherwise satisfy the requirements outlined in section 198 and regulation 142(1), as extracted in Appendix A below. The AEC must advise the General Manager of the Fair Work Commission of a possible contravention of section 198(1) of the Act not later than 21 days after the AEC has become aware of the possible contravention.

DIFFICULT RULE	WHY IT IS DIFFICULT	MODEL RULE
AEU NSWTF Branch Rule 31(4)(b) – Such withdrawal of nomination shall be by notice in writing to the Returning Officer signed by the nominee and submitted by hand, post or facsimile or any other electronic means.	The AEU NSWTF Branch Rule 31(4)(b) specifies withdrawal of nominations can be submitted by facsimile. The AEC no longer has the ability to receive a facsimile. Any such withdrawal of a nomination shall only be submitted to the AEC by hand, post or email.	D6.8 A nominee may withdraw their nomination by notice in writing, signed by them and delivered to the Returning Officer in a form acceptable to the Returning Officer, provided that such notice is received no later than seven (7) days after the closing time for the submission of nominations.

Rules that could be improved with a model rule

In conducting the election, the AEC identified the following rules that could be improved to support how the election is administered. The rule could be updated using the model rules published by the Fair Work Commission (available at <https://www.fwc.gov.au/registered-organisations/running-registered-organisation/rules-unions-and-employer-associations>)

The organisation does not need to respond to the following suggestions (i.e. section 198 of the Act does not apply) but is welcome to do so and is encouraged to consider when these suggestions reviewing its rule book.

RULE	BENEFIT	MODEL RULE
AEU NSWTF Branch Rule 31(7) – The Returning Officer shall, on the closing of the ballot and in the presence of such scrutineers as are present: (a) Take steps to ensure that all of the ballot papers are deposited in the ballot box; (b) Open the ballot box to produce unopened declaration envelopes; (c) Determine, prima facie, the bona fides of the ballots by reference to the roll of voters and the removable flap/label;	The AEU NSWTF Branch Rule 31(7) does not allow for progressive preliminary scrutiny. To avoid a delay in the scrutiny process and to ensure the ballot is declared within 14 days as per S106 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 progressive preliminary scrutiny is the preferred method.	BC15.4 Before counting the votes, the Returning Officer must, in respect of each reply paid envelope: BC15.4.1 remove the declaration envelope from the reply-paid envelope; BC15.4.2 examine the voter's declaration attached to the declaration envelope; and BC15.4.3 mark off the voter's name against a copy of the roll of voters

The AEC did not identify any issues in the roll of voters.

Requirement for AEC to make report

- (1) After the completion of an election conducted under this Part by the AEC, the AEC must give a written report on the conduct of the election to:
 - (a) the General Manager; and
 - (b) the organisation or branch for whom the election was conducted.

Note: The AEC may be able, in the same report, to report on more than one election it has conducted for an organisation. However, regulations made under paragraph 359(2)(c) may impose requirements about the manner and timing of reports.

- (2) The report must include details of the prescribed matters.

Contents of report—register of members

- (3) If the AEC is of the opinion that the register of members, or the part of the register, made available to the AEC for the purposes of the election contained, at the time of the election:
 - (a) an unusually large proportion of members' addresses that were not current; or
 - (b) in the case of a register kept by an organisation of employees—an unusually large proportion of members' addresses that were workplace addresses;

this fact must be included in the report, together with a reference to any relevant model rules which, in the opinion of the AEC, could assist the organisation or branch to address this matter.

Note: Model rules are relevant only to the conduct of elections for office, not for elections for other positions (see section 147).

Contents of report—difficult rules

- (4) If the report identifies a rule of the organisation or branch that, in the AEC's opinion, was difficult to interpret or apply in relation to the conduct of the election, the report must also refer to any relevant model rules, which in the opinion of the AEC, could assist the organisation or branch to address this matter.

Note: For model rules, see section 147.

Subsection (3) relevant only for postal ballots

- (5) Subsection (3) applies only in relation to elections conducted by postal ballot.

Note: An organisation can obtain an exemption from the requirement to hold elections for office by postal ballot (see section 144).

198 Organisation to respond to adverse report on rules

Organisation must respond to “difficult rules” report

- (1) If an organisation or branch is given a postelection report under section 197 that identifies a rule that was difficult to interpret or apply, the organisation or branch must, within 30 days, give a written response to the AEC on that aspect of the report.

Civil penalty: 100 penalty units.

- (2) The response must specify whether the organisation or branch intends to take any action in relation to the rule, and if so, what action it intends to take.

Organisation must make its response available to members

(3) The organisation or branch must also make available to its members the part of the report dealing with the difficult rule or rules (the relevant extract) and the organisation's or branch's response to it.

(4) The relevant extract must be made available to members no later than the day on which the response is to be made available by the organisation or branch to members.

Civil penalty: 100 penalty units.

190 Organisation or branch must not assist one candidate over another

An organisation or branch commits an offence if it uses, or allows to be used, its property or resources to help a candidate against another candidate in an election under this Part for an office or other position.

Penalty: 100 penalty units.

(1) If an electoral official is conducting an election, or taking a step in relation to an election, for an office or other position in an organisation, or branch of an organisation, the electoral official:

- (b) may, in spite of anything in the rules of the organisation or branch, take such action, and give such directions, as the electoral official considers necessary:
 - (i) to ensure that no irregularities occur in or in relation to the election; or
 - (ii) to remedy any procedural defects that appear to the electoral official to exist in the rules; or
 - (iii) to ensure the security of ballot papers and envelopes that are for use, or used, in the election.

(2) A person commits an offence if the person does not comply with a direction under subsection (1).

Penalty: 30 penalty units.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (3) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

(4) Subsection (2) does not apply if the person has a reasonable excuse.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter mentioned in subsection (4), see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

(5) An offence against subsection (2) is an offence of strict liability.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

(6) An election for an office or other position conducted by an electoral official, or step taken in relation to such an election, is not invalid merely because of a breach of the rules of the organisation or branch because of:

- (a) action taken under subsection (1); or
- (b) an act done in compliance with a direction under subsection (1).

(7) If an electoral official conducting, or taking a step in connection with, an election for an office or other position:

- (a) dies or becomes unable to complete the conduct of the election or the taking of the step; or
- (b) ceases to be qualified to conduct the election or to take the step;
